TERM ADJUNCT POSITION AVAILABLE
Summer 2019

MPA-867 Canadian Cultural Policy

Posting Date: 2019 January 11
Closing Date: 2019 January 21

The School of Policy Studies at Queen's University invites applications to teach this (0.5) elective course open to students enrolled in the Full-time and Professional Master of Public Administration programs. The successful candidate will possess teaching and/or professional experience in the field; a PhD in a related field will be preferred.

This lecture/seminar course, with an anticipated enrolment of 25-30 graduate students, will be taught on campus. Queen's University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian and permanent residents will be given priority.

Academic professionals at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University. (See http://www.qufa.ca.) A candidate qualified to teach may be considered for appointment to a Term Adjunct position as defined by the Collective Agreement for All Faculty, Librarians and Archivists between QUFA and Queen’s University. Remuneration will be in accordance with the Collective Agreement, and appointments are subject to funding or enrolment criteria.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching experience, the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted, and any other relevant materials that the candidate wishes to submit for consideration. Applicants should also provide a brief (no more than one page) description of the course focus, identifying general themes and student evaluation measures.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada.” Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact Lynn Freeman in the School of Policy Studies at lynn.freeman[AT]queensu.ca.

Applications and all supporting documentation should be submitted by the closing date to: Chair, Appointments Committee, School of Policy Studies, Queen's University, Kingston, ON K7L 3N6 or by email to <spsdirec[AT]queensu.ca>.
