BOOTS ON THE GROUND

Toronto Homecoming is making it easier for talented Torontonians living abroad to return home.

Since 2010, nearly 300 people have attended Toronto Homecoming events – almost half of which are currently living and working in the Toronto region.

Better Ballots facilitates non-partisan dialogue and explores ways to make municipal elections more relevant, effective, fair, and participatory.

On March 6, The Ranked Ballot Initiative – one of the options put forward by Better Ballots – celebrated the tabling of the "Toronto Ranked Ballot Elections Act", which passed ‘Second Reading.’

Pan Am Path connects 84kms of multi-use path to create an active-living legacy for the TORONTO 2015 Pan Am/Parapan Am Games.

Environment Minister Glen Murray called it “one of the newest, greenest, most exciting and beautiful pieces of transportation infrastructure to come to our region in a long time.”

Project Neutral helps Toronto neighbourhoods become carbon neutral.

Project Neutral won the 2013 Tides Top 10 Award, which recognizes initiatives that are leading the pack in social change innovation.

In the past two years, Project Neutral has helped 80% of participating households reduce their carbon footprint by five tonnes of greenhouse gas emissions.
