

MASSEY COLLEGE
in the University of Toronto

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO THE BOOK LAUNCH OF

INDIGENOUS NATIONALS, CANADIAN CITIZENS

FROM FIRST CONTACT TO CANADA 150 AND BEYOND

BY THOMAS J. COURCHENE

MONDAY MAY 14TH, 2018 - 5:00 PM
MASSEY COLLEGE

This meticulous history, analysis and perspective on injustices of the past and present, new departures and hopeful roadmaps for the future casts an empirical light on what we should know, and lights a candle of new ideas and suggestions for the road ahead.

Tom Courchene, OC, SOM, FRSC was born in Waka, Saskatchewan and was educated at the University of Saskatchewan, Princeton and Chicago. He is the inaugural winner of the Donner Prize, and the Canada Council Molson Prize for lifetime achievement, whose citation indicated he is, "one of Canada's visionaries and is known as a man of infinite capacity and integrity..."

RSVP TO EMILY MOCKLER:

EMOCKLER@MASSEYCOLLEGE.CA OR 416-978-6606