WE’RE HERE TO HELP

EMERGENCY SERVICES 24/7/365
Fire-Police-Ambulance 911
Queen’s Emergency Report Centre 613-533-6111

QUEEN’S CAMPUS SUPPORTS
Campus Security (non-emergency or general inquiries) 24hrs 613-533-6733
Campus Observation Room (COR), Leonard Hall Room 008 613-533-6911
   For students who have had too much to drink
   Sept-Nov, Fri & Sat, Orientation Week, Homecoming, St. Patrick’s Day

Faith and Spiritual Life 613-533-6000
   For confidential, spiritual support
   ext 32186

Peer Support Centre, J Duc Rooms 26 and 34 613-533-6000
   10:00am - 10:00pm
   ext 75111

Student Wellness Services 613-533-2506
   Health and Counselling Services
   Sept - Apr, Mon-Thurs, 9:00am - 7:30pm and Fri, 9:00am - 5:00pm

Walkhome 613-533-9255
   Student-run safety service
   Sun - Wed, 8:00pm - 2:00am and Thurs - Sat, 8:00pm - 3:00am

COMMUNITY-BASED SUPPORTS
Addiction and Mental Health Services Kingston: Crisis Line 24hrs 613-544-4229
Good2Talk: Post-Secondary Student Mental Health Helpline 24hrs 1-866-925-5454
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Youth Line 1-800-268-9688
   Sun - Fri, 4:00pm - 9:30pm
Telephone Aid Line Kingston 613-544-1771
   7:00pm - 3:00am
Telehealth Ontario: Medical Advice 24hrs 1-866-797-0000

IF YOU EXPERIENCE SEXUAL VIOLENCE: YOU HAVE CHOICES
Not sure what to do? Contact Barb Lotan, the Queen’s University Sexual Violence Prevention and Response Coordinator by email bj7@queensu.ca, phone 613-533-6330, or at her office (B502 Mac-Corry Hall) Monday – Friday for support, information and to review your options.

- Go to a safe space. Call 911 or Queen’s Emergency Report Centre for safety assessment and planning

- Seek medical care, STI and pregnancy prevention, and evidence collection at the Kingston Health Sciences Centre Emergency Dept.
  Ask for the Sexual Assault/Domestic Violence (SA/DV) Nurse

- Contact Sexual Assault Centre Kingston for 24/7 crisis support

- Call Student Wellness Services, for counselling support and assistance 613-533-2506