WHAT ...

is Start-UP?

Start-UP is a program designed for students with disabilities, including those transitioning from high school to university –

- How are accommodations different in university?
- How can I do better on exams or improve my grades?
- What kind of adaptive technology is available?
- What other resources are available on campus?
- How is learning different at university?

WHO ...

is eligible?

Students with all types of disabilities, in any year, can use Start-UP to work on specific learning strategies that address the unique challenges of having a disability:

- Medical conditions
- Mental health disabilities
- Physical disabilities
- Vision or hearing loss
- Concussions
- Learning Disabilities (LD)
- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity (ADHD)
- Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

HOW ... to be a part of Start-UP?

All students are encouraged to contact the Start-UP coordinator before the beginning of classes, whether or not you have had your initial intake appointment with your QSAS Advisor, or re-registered for renewal of your accommodations.

Individual appointments can be made by phone (613) 533-2506 in person

QSAS – Mitchell Hall
69 Union Street

by email: gez@queensu.ca

www.queensu.ca/studentwellness/accessibility
What: one-on-one interaction to discuss your concerns, potential challenges, understand your accommodations, available resources on campus, receive learning strategy support and/or referral to other services as needed.

When: Tuesday 9am – 4:30pm
      Wednesday 1:30 – 4:30pm
      Thursday 9am – 4:30pm

Where: QSAS - 1st Floor
       Mitchell Hall
       69 Union Street
       www.queensu.ca/studentwellness/accessibility

Contact
Gail Eaton-Smith, Coordinator
Start-UP Transition & Learning Strategies
Mitchell Hall, Queen’s University
69 Union Street
K7L 3N6

Phone: 613-533-6000 ext 74206
Email: ge2@queensu.ca

Start-UP
Transition
& Learning Strategies
for Students With Disabilities

Queen’s Student Accessibility Services
QSAS
Student Wellness Services
Queen’s University
69 Union Street
Kingston, ON, K7L 3N6

613-533-2506
Accessibility.services@queensu.ca