E: Frequently Asked Questions

When should I use this form?

Use this form for any extenuating circumstances, as defined by Senate policy, that have led to a reduced ability to meet some or all academic requirements for any length of time. Click here for more information.

When should this form not be used?

1. Do not use this form for any reason other than an extenuating circumstance as defined by Senate policy. For example, do not use this form for a personal event (e.g. vacation, wedding), transportation (e.g., late train), technological difficulty (e.g., computer crash), competing commitment, or academic / exam related stress.
 - In those cases consult with your instructors or with the Faculty/School Office, who have discretion to approve or deny your request.
 - Students who do not feel able to meet academic requirements due to high levels of academic stress and/or exam related anxiety should seek out supports and services from Student Wellness Services.
2. Do not use this form for situations where no consideration is required (e.g. there are no marks associated with your inability to meet academic obligations or attend classes due to extenuating circumstances).
3. Do not use this form if you have a Letter of Accommodations or Short-Term Academic Accommodations from QSAS or your health care provider at Student Wellness Services (SWS). Submit these forms directly to your instructor(s), and do not complete this form. Follow-up with your Accessibility Services Advisor or your SWS health care provider, as needed.

My Faculty/School has requested I submit a Formal Attestation of Extenuating Circumstances Form. What does this mean?

Some Faculties/Schools require students to provide documentation when submitting second and subsequent requests in a term for academic consideration lasting 3 days or less. Some Faculties/Schools may also require students to provide documentation for requests lasting 3 days or less that occur during midterms or final exams (see table in Section F - page 3). In situations where documentation is not available (e.g., you were at home and not seen by a health care provider), a Formal Attestation of Extenuating Circumstances Form signed at the Faculty Office may be submitted.
